BRIEF MENTIONINGS.

Events in and About the City Given in a Nutshell.

A Pennsylvania woman's organization has accepted a "Dewey Day" invitation. The council committee on ordinances is called to meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Wheeling Lodge No. 22, A. O. U. W., will discuss the Boer war this evening at their lodge room.

Coating was a popular juvenile pastime yesterday on Fourteenth and Twenty-second streets.

The case of Rolf & Zane vs. J. F. Glascock was on trial in the circuit court yesterday afternoon.

In "Briton vs. Boer," as produced in the first branch of council last night, John Bull came out on top.

Wheeling may have eight additional police officers. Now see how many friends "Billy" Clement has.

The county commissioners' committee on poor house and farm met yesterday afternoon at the infirmary and transacted routine business.

The refund election will be held February 24. The ordinance was passed last night by council, unanimously in both branches. There is no politics in it.

The Marquis club will dance at the Central Garden club to-night. The feature of the evening will be a prize waltz. Music by Prof. Long.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Carroll Club will be held on Monday evening, February 13, for the purpose of electing a board of directors.

The Pacific Express Company announces an improved service to Cleveland via the three new through trains just put on by the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad, leaving at 7:30 a. m., 11:15 a. m. and 4:30 p. m.

Mrs. Anna Weidman, of the Sixth ward, was arraigned in Squire Fitzpatrick's court yesterday at the instance of Humane Officer Echols on the charge of cruelty to her child. She was forced to give $50 bond for six months to keep the peace.

Yesterday, in the criminal court, in the case of state vs. H. Zercher, the motion for a new trial was overruled by Judge Huges, and sentence was deferred. On Thursday this court will pass on the motion made for a new trial in the criminal assault case of state vs. Crawford.

The hearing of Ben Davis, the stranger arrested early yesterday morning in the Second ward by Police Officer Turner, on the charge of passing counterfeit silver dollars, of which ninety were found on his person, will be held by United States Commissioner Boyd on February 10.

SPONTANEOUS AND LIBERAL RESPONSES

Should Greet the "Dewey Day" Finance Committee When It Opens Its Campaign.

THE CANVASS BEGINS TO-DAY.

A Cavalry Division and a Bureau of Information Suggested—More Acceptances.

Owing to the sickness of Mr. John Waterhouse, the chairman, the "Dewey Day" finance committee has not yet begun its campaign for the funds needed to defray the expenses of the celebration, but the chairman of the general committee was informed yesterday afternoon by Mr. Waterhouse that the committee—which was divided into sub-committees—would open its campaign this morning and push it with the necessary vigor, so that the $3,000 desired may be raised within a few days. As the business people are beginning to realize the proportions of the demonstration—which will assuredly be the "biggest" day in Wheeling's history—it isn't likely that the committee will meet with any difficulties in raising the sum mentioned. The celebration means the dumping into the pockets of Wheeling people of a sum probably ten or twenty times the amount necessary to put it through successfully. The finance committee was divided into the following sub-committees:

Main street, creek to Tenth, and Water street—John Waterhouse, Joseph Speldel, F. H. Lange, Morris Horkheimer, F. C. H. Schwerdtfeger and Hurlibon Quarrier.

Market street, creek to Tenth, and Sixteenth, Fourteenth and Twelfth streets—M. A. Chew, H. C. Meyer, George Baird, Clarke Hamilton, James P. Maxwell.

Manufacturers—C. A. Robinson and Frank G. Caldwell.

Yesterday afternoon Dr. R. M. Manley called on Chairman Garvin, of the general committee, and proposed the organization of a cavalry division. He believes that hundreds of farmers from Ohio, Marshall, Brooke and Belmont counties would do honor to Dewey if such a division were formed. The chairman was favorably impressed with the idea, and will likely appoint a sub-committee to arrange for the cavalry turn-out.

It has been called to the attention of the general committee, that there is great necessity for the opening of a bureau of information at some central point in the city on February 21 and 22. It is proposed that all hotel men, boarding house keepers and families willing to house visitors, report to the committee in charge of the bureau the number of guests they can accommodate and the price for lodging and meals. This information would be sought not only from hotel men and others in Wheeling, but also from Bellairs, Benwood, Martin's Ferry, Bridgeport and Moundsville, as it is believed the crowd will be so large that Wheeling alone will not be able to accommodate it. A committee will likely be appointed to-day to take charge of this matter.

An organization of women from McDonald, Pa., has accepted the invitation to take part in the demonstration. The following letter was received yesterday at "Dewey Day" headquarters:

McDONALD, Pa., Jan. 28, 1900.

T. M. Garvin, Esq.:
Dear Sir:—I have been instructed to answer your kind invitation of January 10, 1900, and I thank you in behalf of the Ladies of Good Intent Hives of Oakland. I am sorry this answer has been delayed so long, but I have been sick, and our record keeper pro tem forgot to do her duty. Our member, Mrs. Bower, who received the invitation, is also sick. Quite a number of the ladies intend to go to Wheeling on the 22nd. Our Hives accepted the invitation, but was not sure how many would attend. I think we will have a good turnout of ladies, providing the weather is favorable. Your truly,

MRS. HELEN SMITH,
Record Keeper Good Intent Hives, Oakland, Pa.

The acceptances received yesterday were the following:

Good Intent Hives, of Oakland, McDonald, Pa.

Brooke lodge, I. O. O. F., of Wellsburg.

Central Council No. 114, Jr. O. U. A. M., of Uniontown, W. Va., in uniform.

Mannington division, Knights of St. John.

A letter was received from Captain David McDewitt, of the East Liverpool company of the Ohio National Guard, stating that the matter of coming to Wheeling would be submitted to a vote at a meeting of the company this evening.

Chairman Garvin has requested Commander Joseph A. Weltzel, of Lafayette division, Knights of St. John, to communicate with divisions of the order in western Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio, as well as with those in West Virginia, to induce them to take part in the parade.

THE TENTH PENNSYLVANIA'S Waynesburg Company Will Not Take Part in "Dewey Day" Parade.

Hopes have been entertained that the Waynesburg company of the Tenth Pennsylvania, the regiment that served with such distinction in the Spanish-American war and Philippine insurrection at and near Manila, would take part in the "Dewey Day" parade in this city. The Intelligencer regrets to chronicle the information that the company will not be able to appear, owing to the inability of the Pennsylvania National Guard headquarters to furnish equipment in time.

The company, which is commanded by Captain Thomas S. Crago, a nephew of Prof. F. H. Crago, of this city, held a meeting at Waynesburg last night, and took the action indicated in the following telegram received by the Intelligencer last night:

WAYNESBURG, Pa., Jan. 28, 1900.
Wheeling Intelligencer, Wheeling, W. Va.:
Owing to fact that company has not been furnished ordinance, we voted not to come as a body.
THOS. S. CRAGO.
